Ms Reynolds and Mrs Robinson

Councillor King

Apologies: Councillors D Humphrey Aly and Ms Clark

Presentation by Police Inspector for Fenland Will Davis

Local Police presence at Parish Councils has now been withdrawn to be replaced by monthly reports. The Inspector is of the opinion that resources are best served by officer being out and about in the area visiting schools, clubs, events etc. They are very willing to attend meetings if there is a particular problem that needs discussing.

Whittlesey Police Station has now closed as it was not viable. There are now two bases at March and Wisbech.

The biggest problem in the area is that there are 14 children's homes in the area and nearly everyday children are reported missing and this is treated as a priority for the police.

People exploitation is another local issue.
